Proclaiming the Easter Message: our sole purpose and privilege

Russia in the grip of national fear and trouble: Why Christianity is the counter leading to peace and confidence

Easter 2010. It is dawn, and the light begins to break out from the darkness. It is the scene of the resurrection that comes to mind while reading Matthew's gospel account of the day that Jesus rose from the dead. As I listen to NLR, the station is playing Amazing Grace, and then station manager Dima comes on and proclaims the celebration of Easter across the world, with Andre and Grisha adding their greetings to our listeners, encouraging them with the story that shakes us to our very core. Jesus came and died, and rose again this day. That fact is the bedrock of our existence, our story, our life, and the purpose of our being.

As I rise this dawn in New York, I wonder about the 24 dawns in time zones around the world that meet Easter morning in the very same manner. In every place, Russian listeners are able to tune into the station to hear the heart warming, but challenging message of what Jesus has done for us. That he rose during this dawn morning so long ago in the land of Israel; that he told his disciples to meet him in Galilee, and then would challenge them to reach the entire world with the Great commission. And today, this morning, this is what we do through New Life Radio. What a purpose, and a privilege! And we thank every one of you who partners with us, that we are able this dawn Easter morning to share the Good News that eternal life is offered to us, from the one who endured the cross, and then revealed himself to us. We encourage those who can hear us, to believe, and then see how the Lord of the universe will change them into a NEW LIFE in Christ.

Christ is risen. He is risen INDEED!

Russia: a Nation in Fear

On March 29, two explosions set off by Islamic suicide bombers inside the Moscow metro system, killed 40 people and wounded 115. Additional attacks continued the following week, touching off fears that the Muslim insurgency in southern Russia was once again being brought to the country's heart.

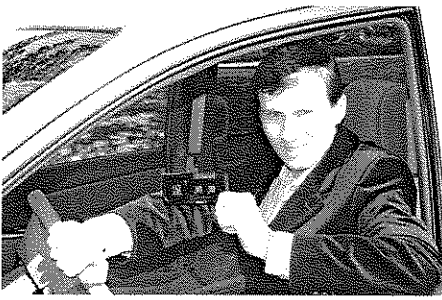

Prime Minister Putin has vowed to destroy those responsible for these and other attacks that have served to bring a state of fear across Russia: the nation is in crisis and is looking for answers.

Today a spiritual vacuum exists with ever lower moral and ethical standards coupled with rampant materialism and the quest for money. Corruption is endemic, unemployment high, alcoholism, drug abuse and sexual disease at the highest rates in the world. This is the Russia of today and it lives in fear. It is looking for peace and hope, but searching in the wrong places. The land is ripe for hearing the Gospel story of the crucified ONE.

It is in this climate of fear that our radio ministry is poised to carry out its work. NLR broadcasts explain why Christianity is the answer to a nation that desperately needs peace and the confidence that comes from knowing the Savior who sets them free and casts out fear. Jesus' words from John 14 are transmitted across the country:

Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid.

God's WORD goes out via New Life Radio to a hurting Russia and world

Stas Zhuchenko:

New Systems

Helping NLR spread the Good News to Slavic immigrants
In California by cell phone

A primary goal of New Life Radio is to maintain a high quality Christian radio service (available by satellite or Internet) that can be redistributed in countless ways to thousands of communities across the world. CRFR donors make it possible for us to maintain the basic signal from our Moscow studios. We then ask God to bring people into our path, in order to expand the reach of our radio.

One man recently placed in our path is Stanislav Zhuchenko, a Russian immigrant living in Sacramento, California. Stas, who is an enterprising Christian businessman, developed a company in this city providing a variety of telecom services. His "NEW SYSTEMS" company recently began offering a unique Internet-cell phone-based broadcast service that allows customers with unlimited calling plans to dial in a local phone number to listen to Russian radio stations. Being a believer with an interest in promoting Christian radio, Stas took the major step to offer New Life Radio on his system, even placing NLR first in a lineup of over 23 stations.

This is just the latest example of a wonderful cooperation between NLR and Russian-speaking Christians throughout the world who want to use our radio to witness to their family, friends, and community. We ask you to pray for Stas, that God would bless his efforts, and use it to glorify God, while bringing people into his kingdom. THANKS TO STAS from all of us at CRFR and NLR!

how they feel about NLR

Great Radio! I always listen to NLR over the Internet when at work.
Stephan

Peace to New Life Radio! I listen to NLR all the time and for me it is a light in the dark room. Thank you for everything you do, God bless you for many years ahead!
Yulia

I always listen to NLR and I get spiritual nourishment, and life's getting much better! Thanks to God that we have you and God gives you to broadcast.
Ivan

Thanks to the Lord for all who work to create such a wonderful radio! Two years ago I came to the station and then started attending church, and when I turn NLR on, I feel that this radio is so precious to me! God bless you!
Inna

I admire New Life Radio! Love you all!

OUR MISSION:

To share the Gospel of Christ, through the provision of Christian radio programming to Russian-speaking peoples across Russia, the former Soviet republics, and worldwide, via satellite radio, internet, and FM.

APRIL UPDATE:

There is so much opportunity to share the Gospel and to fulfill the task Christ gave us to take on the Great commission to the ends of the earth. But it takes support.

Since January, we have been far behind in meeting the costs needed to keep NLR on the air. We are usually $7000 short each month. Perhaps you or your church can make a special gift this month, or become regular givers. THANKS!
